

Question 1: A presumed cause must occur before the presumed effect is known as what?

- Time order relationship
- Co variation of relationship
- Inverse relationship
- Direct relationship

Question 2: To determine whether changing one variable (like education) will produce changes in another (like income), we need to conduct which type of research method?

- Correlational research
- Archival research
- Observational research
- Laboratory research

Question 3: Which of the following is defined as a kind of mental model that people hold?

- Believes
- Schema
- Attitude
- Dream

Question 4: Which of the following is defined as a group of people consists of all the members of an identifiable group from which a sample is drawn?

- Population
- Public
- Sample
- Individuals

Question 5: Which of the following is a NOT common type of observational methods?

- Naturalistic
- Participant
- Unrealistic
- Archival

Question 6: According to Margaret Mead, which of the following societies are peaceful?

- New Guinea
- Mundugumor of New Guinea
- New York
- Arapesh of New Guinea

Question 7: Which one is not a characteristic of empirical research?